A FAMILY HISTORY FROM GENERATION TO GENERATION

Since 1993, Western Harvest Gardens has been expanding its family growth. Continuing the tradition of excellence that began in 1893 with our Great Great Grandfather, growing a land north of Montreal.

The love of the land has been perpetuated from the Great Great Grandfather, to the grandfather, the father and to Ghislain and Normand, Ghislain's brother.

Both are passionate and rigorous farmers, for four generations, the family behind Western Harvest Gardens has made a priority of meeting the highest standards of quality. They follow each step from the seed to the end user. For more than 20 years, we have made sure that our products meet the highest standards of quality and freshness.

Western Harvest is a vertically integrated company, having its sister's company RGR Guinois as a supplier.

Western Harvest, has a very high standard in customer service. Therefore since 2012 we have added a transport division, assuring a stability and punctuality in our deliveries. As well as a more competitive cost on freight.

The owner of Western Harvest, Ghislain Guinois, has always been a good visionary in what he does best. We only grow the Best and we buy the best, if we don't grow it. Our quality control is easy : Excellence period ! Anything below is not for us says Ghislain.
